History 30: Canadian Studies SK.8306 Mr. B. Schoenfeld

Overall 84

Comments

Udaey, you have learned some strong study skills that have allowed you to perform well on unit tests. I would like to encourage you to participate more actively in class discussions and small group activities as it is a place to practice articulating and defending your ideas. This will help to practice showing better evidence of your learning, by offering more specific historical examples. Best of luck in your future.
